Andy May's Guitar 101 Workshop at the Country Music Hall of Fame

HONOR THY MUSIC®

The date has been set for Andy's Guitar 101 workshop: Saturday June 19 at 1 pm. This will be a fun, hands-on workshop for beginners. He'll teach the basics in his characteristic easy-going style--with the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's legendary "guitars of the stars" as a backdrop. (How cool is that!?) There will be guitars on hand for participants to use. The workshop is part of CMHF's Family Program series.

In the Works:

- Dance of Life-A Mandolin Celebration CD reissue
- Possibilities, Andy's new CD of original songs.
- Wilson County Fair in August (Date & time TBA)

- Planning for this year's Walnut Valley Festival (Winfield, KS), coming up in September.
- Bookings! Want to see Andy at a venue near you? Give the presenters his name and website address: www.andymay.com or suggest a venue to Andy.
