Andy May's Acoustic Kids Showcases are non-competitive, festival-based performance opportunities for young musicians - including singers - of all skill levels.

 For Guitar Town, preference will be given to players of guitar-family instruments (any style guitar, Dobro, pedal steel, electric bass, etc.) and to bands whose age-eligible members play these instruments. However, all age-eligible musicians may apply and will be considered if it looks like there will be enough time in the showcase to include them.*
